

Northside Legal Services is a law firm specializing in real estate and estate law. The company was looking to sharpen their focus on these two services and ignite new growth. We quickly learned that what made this company different was their deep level of knowledge – and the emphasis they place on making sure their clients understand exactly what they are signing. For them we developed:

- A positioning strategy, logo, and tagline with an engaging “Did you know...” theme
- Support materials including two new brochures business cards and useful “DYK cards”
- A new website, filled with useful information
